

Managing Tennessee Waters: From State Policy to Local Needs

September 2, 2009

Nashville Renaissance Hotel, Belmont I Room, 611 Commerce St, Nashville, TN 37203

AGENDA

- 10:00 – 10:05 Welcome
- 10:05 – 10:20 State of Our Streams
Vena Jones, Cumberland River Compact, Local Officials Director
- 10:20 – 10:35 TDEC Water Supply Planning and State Policy
Tom Moss, Tennessee Dept of Environment & Conservation,
Division of Water Supply, Acting Director
- 10:35 – 10:50 TAUD Priorities and Future Projections
Bob Freudenthal, Tennessee Association of Utility Districts,
Executive Director
- 10:50 – 11:05 TWRA Instream Flow Program and Agency Direction
Dave McKinney, Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency,
Environmental Services, Chief
- 11:05 - 11:20 Lunch Distribution
- 11:20 - 12:20 Panel on Instream Flow
Water Quality/Quantity Connection
 Saya Qualls, Tennessee Dept of Environment & Conservation,
 Water Pollution Control Chief Engineer
Instream Flow Studies in Tennessee
 Kim Elkin, Tennessee Wildlife Resources Agency, Instream Flow
 Biologist
Protecting Instream Flows in the Southern United States
 Scott Robinson, Southeast Aquatic Resources Partnership, Coordinator
Role of Science and Scientists in Stakeholder Driven Instream Flow Assessments
 Thomas Hardy, Utah State University, Utah Water Research
 Laboratory, Associate Director
- 12:30 – 12:45 Questions and Feedback
- 12:45 – 1:30 Facilitated Work Session
Margo Farnsworth, Cumberland River Compact, Senior Research Consultant
- 1:30 Adjourn

Cumberland River Compact

PO Box 41721, Nashville, TN 37204
www.cumberlandrivercompact.org